

Chattahoochee Hills Barn Quilt Trail

Located just 30 minutes south of the world's busiest airport in Atlanta, Georgia, is a hidden gem of a small town called Chattahoochee Hills. Untouched by sprawl and mega development, this community made an intentional decision to preserve its rural heritage when it incorporated in 2007.

Today, visitors come from all over metro Atlanta to enjoy a day in the country at our Serenbe Community, bicycle our 25-mile Scenic Byway -- the first in Georgia, or explore the natural beauty of our parks and the Chattahoochee River. Most can't believe that there is such a beautiful country setting so close to Atlanta, and they wonder, "What's our story?"

We invite you to take a self-guided tour of our Chatt Hills Barn Quilt Trail and learn more about what makes our community so special. Each painted barn quilt is based on a traditional cloth quilt design, and each tells a story about our Chatt Hills heritage.

The map on the following page shows the location of the barn quilts today. The map will be updated as additional barn quilts are added. To learn more about each barn quilt and its story, visit our website.
