

Chatt Hills Barn Quilt Trail Status Report – August, 2021

QUILT TRAIL UPDATE

Barn Quilts Completed

Since the July 2021 report, two new barn quilts have been added to the barn quilt trail, bringing the total number of barn quilts to 25.

Luck of the Irish barn quilt features a Shamrock pattern. It was installed on Frank and Wendy Maguire's barn located at 7350 Hopkins Rd, on 8/21/21. The barn quilt measures 72x72 inches and was painted by Laurie Searle and installed by Sam Smith.

This barn quilt has been viewed on social media by 3,909 people with 359 engagements. The link to their story is at:

A Ruby-Throated Hummingbird barn quilt was created for the Maguires front porch as a custom project. Since this barn quilt cannot be seen from the public road (in the summer time), it is not eligible to be on the barn quilt trail. The Maguires offered to pay Laurie to create it, and she opted instead for a barter of one dozen of their farm-fresh eggs.

This barn quilt was posted to several Barn Quilt Facebook pages and has become one of the most popular, with several requests for a duplicate. Barn Quilt International has featured this on their home page.

This Way Home barn quilt was installed on Ray and Jean Hearn's barn located at 8255 Hearn Rd, on 8/24/21. The barn quilt measures 60x60 inches and was painted by Laurie Searle and installed by Sam Smith.

This barn quilt has been viewed on social media by 6,732 people with 846 engagements. The link to their story is at:
<https://www.chatthillsbarnquilttrail.com/rj-hearn-homeplace.html>

The barn quilt was inspired by the blueberry pie pattern, but once the Hearn's selected different colors, a pattern emerged with four green arrows pointing to a center red square, which symbolizes home. In honor of their family and road, we've named their barn quilt, "This Way Home." This story, and the barn quilt, was among the most popular on the Barn Quilt FB groups.

Barn Quilts in Cue

1. Steve Nygren has requested a barn quilt for the Serenbe barn near the Inn. The barn quilt is finished and is in the process of being scheduled for installation.
2. Sandra and Hal Huffmaster have requested a barn quilt for their goat farm on 7505 Old Phillips Rd. They have selected a pattern and colors and theirs will be the next one painted.
3. Sandra Hill has requested a barn quilt for her mailbox at 7990 Campbellton Redwine Rd, since her barn cannot be seen from the road. This is eligible for our “side trail” which is posted to the Website but not the printed barn quilt trail map. She has requested a butterfly pattern.
4. City Hall Barn Quilts were discussed on the June 1 work session. Council gave a head nod approval for a freestanding barn quilt at city hall. I am in the process of collaborating with Serenbe quilter Janice Barton to create a custom design.

Off the List or On Hold – the following have considered barn quilts but have not yet followed-up.

1. Mark Hennesy has requested a barn quilt for two of his properties. Will place this on hold until I hear back from them.
2. Susan Krause & Steve Jarvis at 7777 Barns Road have submitted an application to create their own barn quilt for the trail. Will place this on hold until I hear back from them.
3. StudioSwan at 5401 Campbellton Redwine Rd (in the old Masonic Lodge.) They have submitted pattern called “Thistle Bloom” which I offered to paint. They want to paint their building first, so I’ll place this on hold until I hear back from them.
