

Chatt Hills Barn Quilt Trail Status Report – January/February, 2021

QUILT TRAIL UPDATE

Barn Quilts Completed

Since the December 2021 report, two new barn quilts have been added to the barn quilt trail, bringing the total number of barn quilts to 31.

The Mosaic Star barn quilt features multi-colored squares leading to a white star surrounded by red. It was installed on a large barn on Megan Langdon's property at 10675 Hutcheson Ferry Rd. The barn quilt measures 8x8 ft and was painted by Laurie Searle and installed by Sam Smith on Feb 5, 2022.

This barn quilt has been viewed on social media by 16,824 people with 2,285 engagements. The link to their story is at:

Barn Quilts in Cue

Lynne & Jimmy Peterson have requested a barn quilt for their property at 5495 Pace Rd. They have selected a pattern and work will begin on painting the barn quilt next week.

Daron "Farmer D" Joffe has requested a barn quilt for his property at 10975 Hutcheson Ferry Rd. A site visit is planned for 2/25/22.

Off the List or On Hold – the following have considered barn quilts but have not yet followed-up.

StudioSwan

Since the October 2021 report, a new barn quilt has been painted for StudioSwan. This intends to be a collaborative project, with Laurie Searle painting a traditional pattern called Thistle Bloom and Tom Swanston adding an artist image in the center portion. The main barn quilt is finished; however, due to the holidays and the StudioSwan recent exhibition, completion of this project has been slightly delayed but it is expected to be finished soon.

1. Mark Hennesy has requested a barn quilt for two of his properties. Will place this on hold until I hear back from them.
2. Susan Krause & Steve Jarvis at 7777 Barns Road have submitted an application to create their own barn quilt for the trail. Will place this on hold until I hear back from them.
