

Chatt Hills Barn Quilt Trail Status Report – July 28, 2021

QUILT TRAIL UPDATE

Barn Quilts Completed

Since the June 2021 report, three new barn quilts have been added to the barn quilt trail, bringing the total number of barn quilts to 23.

Birds of a Feather (2) barn quilts feature a Cardinal bird pattern and a custom Golden Finch bird pattern. These were installed on Ms. Tootsie Peek's garage at 7790 Rico Rd on July 9, 2021.

The Cardinal barn quilt measures 72x72 inches and is placed on the side of the garage. Ms. Peek asked if she could have a smaller one for the front of her garage, so the Finch barn quilt, which measures 36x36 inches, was painted for her 89th birthday present. Both barn quilts were painted by Laurie Searle and installed by Sam Smith.

This barn quilt has been viewed on social media by 10, 723 people with 1,104 engagements. The link to her story is at:

The Squash Blossom barn quilt was installed at 7980 Campbellton Redwine Rd on July 23, 2021. The property is owned by Jill & Lee Web who love southern western and Native American art.

The barn quilt measures 65x65 inches and was painted by Laurie Searle and installed by Sam Smith

Posies for Penny barn quilt (inspired by the Crocus quilt pattern on the Ohio Quilt Trail) was installed at City Hall, Court Services Office on July 26, 2021. The BQ pattern was selected by Chatt Hills court clerk Penny Mitchell to pretty up her office for the many visitors she sees each day.

The barn quilt measures 48x48 inches and was painted by Laurie Searle and installed by Sam Smith.

Barn Quilts in Cue

1. Wendy Charles McGuire at 7350 Hopkins Rd has requested a barn quilt. She has selected a pattern and it is currently being painted.
2. Steve Nygren has requested a barn quilt for a barn at Serenbe near the Inn. He has selected a pattern and this will be painted after the McGuire's barn quilt.
3. Ray & Jean Hearn have requested a barn quilt and have selected their pattern. They are next in line after Serenbe.
4. Mark Hennesy has requested a barn quilt for two of his properties. He will submit an application.
5. City Hall Barn Quilts were discussed on the June 1 work session. Council gave a head nod approval for a freestanding barn quilt at city hall. Design to be selected soon.

Off the List or On Hold – the following have considered barn quilts but have not yet followed-up.

1. Carter Williamson inquired about a barn quilt for Cherry Hollow Farm. He asked if one could be placed on a building inside his property, but is not visible from the road. He said it would get a lot of views from patrons of his event space. However, I said our quilt trail requires a view from the public road (he didn't want one on his event barn.) He has plans for some smaller buildings in his pasture and will let us know if one is suitable for a barn quilt.
2. Susan Krause & Steve Jarvis at 7777 Barns Road have submitted an application to create their own barn quilt for the trail. Will place this on hold until I hear back from them.
3. StudioSwan at 5401 Campbellton Redwine Rd (in the old Masonic Lodge.) They have submitted pattern called "Thistle Bloom" which I offered to paint. They want to paint their building first, so I'll place this on hold until I hear back from them.
