

Chatt Hills Barn Quilt Trail Status Report – June 30, 2021

QUILT TRAIL UPDATE

Barn Quilts Completed

Since the May 2021 report, three new barn quilts have been added to the barn quilt trail, bringing the total number of barn quilts to 20.

The Stary Night barn quilt (based on the Farmer's Star pattern) was installed at 8135 Atlanta Newnan on June 5, 2021. The property is owned by Dave & Maria Hanson.

The barn quilt measures 96x96 inches and was painted by Laurie Searle and installed by Sam Smith.

This has been the most popular barn quilt to date on our social media, viewed by 12,887 people with 1,893 engagements.

The Four Seasons barn quilt (based on the Maple Leaf pattern) was installed at the Good Shepherd Farm at 8461 Hearn Rd on June 19, 2021. The property is owned by Paul & Emily Harrison.

The barn quilt measures 96x96 inches, and was painted by Laurie Searle with assistance from Paul, Emily, Ruby and Eleanor. Sam Smith did the installation.

This marks a milestone in our quilt trail in that it was the first to be requested by a host. A few others have actively asked to join but have not decided upon a pattern yet. This barn quilt has been viewed by 10,241 people with 1,045 engagements. Link to the story is:

The Sunflowers barn quilts were installed at the Valley Creek Farm at 6095 Campbellton Redwine Rd on June 29, 2021. The property is owned by Rob Vincent.

Two barn quilts were created, each measuring 54x54 inches (60 inches installed on point), and were painted by Laurie Searle and installed by Sam Smith with assistance from Rob Vincent and David.

The barn quilt page is under development and should be published tomorrow. Its link will be:

Barn Quilts in Cue

1. Tootsie Peek at 7790 Rico. Two barn quilts are currently being painted: Red Cardinal Bird (72x72 inches) and Golden Finch (36x36). These should be ready to install next week.
2. Penny Mitchell at city hall was invited to have a barn quilt painted for behind her desk as part of the effort to “pretty up” the lobby area. She has selected a crocus flower barn quilt.
3. Jill Web at 7980 Campbellton Redwine has request a barn quilt. She is currently review patterns.
4. Wendy Charles McGuire at 7350 Hopkins Rd has requested a barn quilt. A selection of patterns will be sent to her this week.
5. City Hall Barn Quilts are on the agenda of the June 1 work session to see if the council wants a barn quilt sign at city hand and the Gateway Sign.

Off the List – the following have considered barn quilts but have not followed-up.

1. John & Terri Taylor at 9275 Wilkerson Mill Rd. They requested a barn quilt and were in the process of selecting a pattern, but after three follow-up phone calls they have not yet moved forward.
2. Carl Bouckaert expressed interest in hosting a barn quilt on his barn at the corner of Cedar Grove and Cochran Mill Rd, but have three follow-up messages to Hugh, he has not yet moved forward.
3. Susan Krause & Steve Jarvis at 7777 Barns Road have submitted an application to create their own barn quilt for the trail. Will place this on hold until I hear back from them.
4. StudioSwan at 5401 Campbellton Redwine Rd (in the old Masonic Lodge.) They have submitted pattern called “Thistle Bloom” which I offered to paint. They want to paint their building first, so I’ll place this on hold until I hear back from them.
